THE LOG OF THE U.S.S. CLIMBER

The sea of knowledge covers a vast area; and as we embark on our ship of "Good Hope", many adventures beckon us to various ports. As we are launched on our hopeful journey, the whole world lies before us waiting to be conquered. As the years advance, our vessel becomes more heavily laden with cargo. All this is in preparation for the day when we shall reach our destination. But what does this destiny hold? For each one something different. Some will make use of the cargo which has been gathered along the way. Others will board new ships, gather more cargo, and explore other new fields.

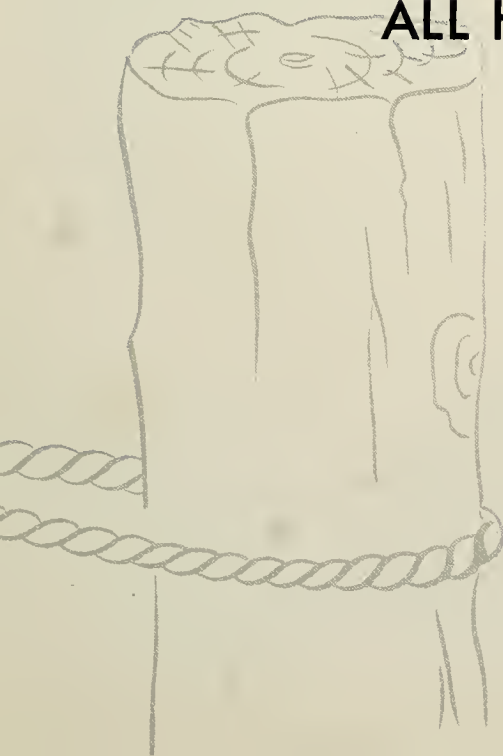

Mr. Armand R. Gendreau

ALL HANDS ON DECK

DEDICATION

During our years in high school, this man has led us through every event with a guiding hand of wisdom and understanding. He has prepared us to meet problems which we face in this democracy, and he has taught us ancient languages. Because of his never-ceasing willingness to help in senior activities and of his influence upon us to activate our abilities to the utmost, we give him a warm "Thank You", and dedicate this, our 1963 Climber, to Mr. Armand R. Gendreau.

NOW HEAR THIS

Congratulations to you, the Class of 1963, upon the successful completion of your high school education.

I hope that the years spent with us will prove to be rewarding in whatever endeavors you may undertake. We have tried to provide you with experiences which will help you meet the demands of life and to appreciate our democratic way of life and the sacrifices of your parents.

I hope that your future years will be fruitful, happy, and successful. May all of you enjoy a full life for yourselves and your families.

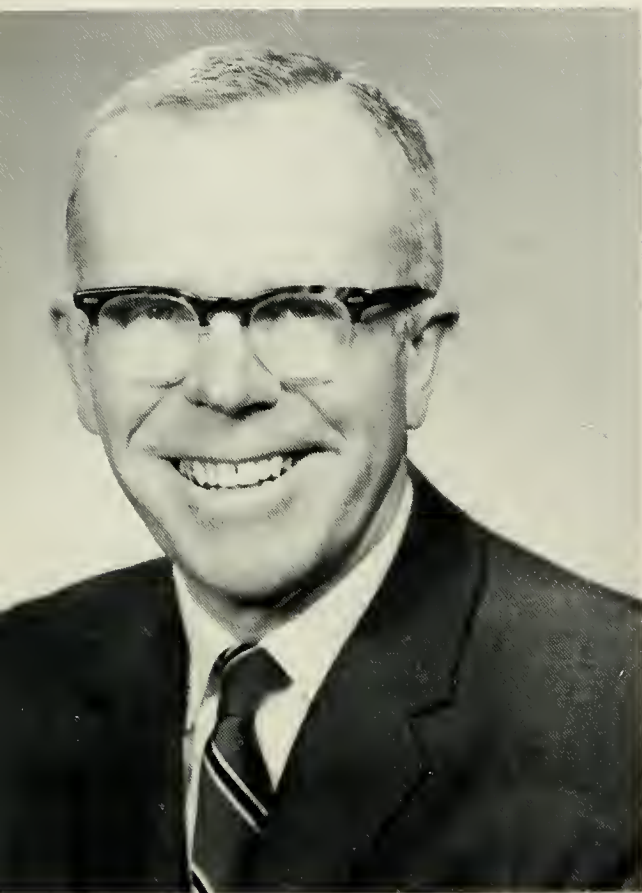

Sincerely,

Peter J. Sperandio
Principal

Mrs. Richard M. Keith
Secretary

Mr. Peter J. Sperandio
Principal

It is a pleasure to have this opportunity to extend a few words to the seniors at West Bridgewater High School.

Although it has been my privilege to know you for only a brief school year I have been favorably impressed by the cooperation extended to your teachers, your general ability, and your desire to improve by taking good advantage of this school year. Congratulations upon the successful completion of your studies and may good fortune follow you in the years to come. Do not let your high school diploma represent a termination of your education but rather let it serve as the key to further self improvement. Remember, too, your high school is prepared and anxious to be of additional service to you in the years ahead.

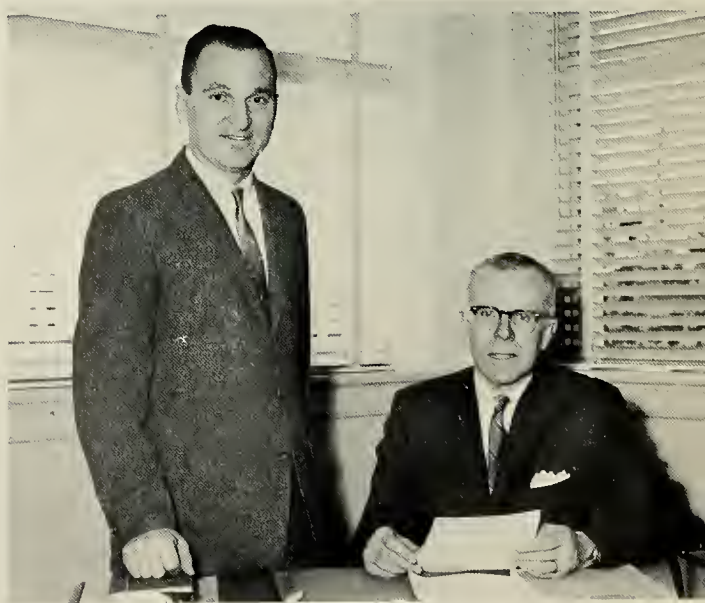

CHARTING OUR COURSE

It is unfortunate that we, the seniors of W.B.H.S., are graduating as you, Mr. Donald A. Fisher, undertake your duties as Superintendent of our Town's school system.

Our one year stay with you has been extremely enjoyable, and we extend to you on behalf of the whole student body in this 1963 Climber our most hearty "Welcome."

ENGLISH

The purpose of the English department is to bestow a wealth of knowledge in the fields of literature, grammar, and composition. Without a mastery of the English language, we would not be able to express ourselves in an intelligent and lucid manner.

"The title of the poem is 'The Raven' not 'The Mockingbird'."

LANGUAGES

The traditional approach to the fundamentals of Latin grammar provides an excellent aid to English and a background for French. Through various techniques and the use of the new language laboratory, the subject is made all the more worthwhile as the emphasis is placed on speaking and comprehending French.

"Algebra need not be boring."

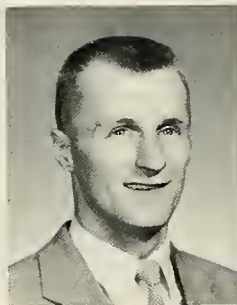

MATHEMATICS

The mathematics courses of West Bridgewater are geared at many different levels according to the desires of the students taking them. They include business math, general mathematics and applied math. College preparatory students are offered courses in algebra, science, geometry, and trigonometry.

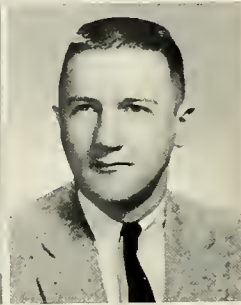

SCIENCE

Science plays an important role in the creation and utilization of the things found in our environment. Through an understanding of the general concepts of the biological and physical sciences, the student learns to appreciate the orderliness and complexity of nature and the universe.

"Notes, notes, notes . . ."

"Those who refuse to learn from history are condemned to repeat it." The aim of the history department is to enable the students to profit from the past, have a growing awareness of the present, and have the foresight to plan for the future.

Mr. Rathburn shows them how.

Mr. Walter B. Lewis

Mr. William A. Rathburn

Through the music and art courses, the students are exposed to the cultural influences which augment their basic education. Appreciation of the fine arts is an integral part of our upbringing.

Port Graduation

COMMERCIAL

The commercial department provides the clerical students with the skills necessary to be on accurate and rapid transcriber. Clerical Practice is a finishing course for the secretarial and nonsecretarial pupils to prepare them for beginning office jobs. Directed projects and planned sets give practical experience in performing all types of commercial tasks.

Mrs. Clifford Wheeler

"Jimmy, are you taking Typing because of the girls?"

GUIDANCE

In the guidance office, one seeks the serenity and peace of mind that comes from knowing you have someone in whom you can confide. Here, you can discuss your problems freely with the knowledge that you will be guided in the right direction.

"You can't drop P.D., it's required to graduate."

Mr. Frank Dunn

Mrs. Donald B. Lawson

HOME ECONOMICS

The purpose of the Household Arts course is to provide the future homemaker with a background for a successful life in the home and in the community. The many diversified components of this course combine to prepare the girls for the responsibilities encountered in raising a family and providing a pleasant, happy home.

Mr. Kaiser Shahdan

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

The Industrial Arts course is divided into three parts. These areas of concentration are in metal working, printing, and wood working. For the lower grades, the pupils are exposed to a general instruction in these fields. In the later years the students specialize in a chosen field.

"Sharp, you are not an Candid Camera."

Mr. Bruce Thomas

Miss Carolyn Gravelin

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

"A strong mind and a strong body." This is the goal of the gym classes at West Bridgewater High School. Every student is required to take physical education throughout his years of school. The year is divided to enable the students to be exposed to the many facets of team sports, allows for work on the trampoline, as well as other gymnastic activities.

"A pyramid is only as strong as its foundation."

"Watch it, Rita, you'll fall."

"It's a bird, it's a plane, no it's Mike Manugian."

NON-TEACHING PERSONNEL

These are the skilled, unseen hands that work to keep our school running as smoothly as possible; the part of our staff which repeatedly makes our attendance at school comfortable.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Secretary, Carol Beals; Vice-President, John Huston; Treasurer, James Cheyunki; President, Ronald Perry.

Our ship pitches to starboard as we embark on our greatest journey. We release the billow sails that will take us by the North Star to success. We quiver a bit as our eyes scan the coastline of Destiny. We must leave our tight ship of safe-keeping and go to the desolate world. We must find our own way down the paths of the unknown. The jubilation of our youth now ends; and in time begins a grasping thirst of a new, insistent understanding—Manhood.

Advisors: Mr. Fisk, Mrs. Lawson, Miss Wright, and Mrs. DeVeber.

Mr. Armand R. Gendreau, advisor; Jeanne Dalton, editor; Sally Swanson, junior editor.

Jeanne Dalton, editor

"The Climber", the name given to the West Bridgewater High School annual, is an appropriate title. Since our high school days are spent in a relentless push to higher goals and ideals, this title then seems to be all the more suitable. It clearly portrays the students endeavoring to work harder year after year in order to attain their goals.

BAND AND MAJORETTES

The football games and pep rallies would lose much of their zip without the able assistance of both the band and drum majorettes. The spring concert gives them another opportunity for displaying their talents. They make for a snappy combination.

CHOIR AND SWING BAND

Both our choir and swing band have for their primary purpose to present their members with an opportunity to relax and do what comes naturally.

The secondary objective of each, however, is not so self-centered. On the contrary, these two groups have provided the student and town audiences with many a fine rendition.

The Senior Class presents "HOWIE"

"I still think you ought to trim those ends."

Traditionally, the Senior Class presents a class play as a means of entertainment and fund-raising. The plays are usually presented at some time during the winter, and this year's play was enacted on December 14th and 15th in the high school auditorium. "Howie," a three act comedy by Phoebe Ephrn, was about a very obnoxious young man who lived with his wife's family. Howie was a misfit—unable to get or hold a job; and was continually giving out unsolicited advice and information. Howie finally found himself as a result of a quiz show—the high point of the play.

1962 FOOTBALL

The 1962 edition of Westies Wildcots football team, while studded with underclassmen, gave promise of better years to come. The team's three and six record contained three losses which, with but an extra touchdown, could have been reversed. Some outstanding individual efforts by veterans, especially in the backfield, kept the team in every game. With eighteen returning lettermen, things look bright for next year.

1962 BASEBALL

In 1962, the Westies Wildcats enjoyed a winning six and five record on the baseball diamond. Anchored by six seniors, the squad, which this year may suffer from inexperience, presented veterans complemented by underclassmen.

The 1963 edition in spite of its apparent inexperience will endeavor to make up for it with hustle and desire to present the new coach with a reason to be optimistic.

SINCERELY THANKS . . .

Mr. Robert Vantine of the Delmar Printing Company for his many suggestions and constant help in the lay out of our Climber.

Lorings Studios for the time they willingly spent taking our photographs.

Mr. Sperandio, our principal, and Mr. Fisher, our superintendent, for their cooperation in allowing us the time and material to meet the requirements of the publication.

The faculty of West Bridgewater High School for their support and willingness to render help.

The towns people who gave so generously in order that we might make this publication possible, especially Mr. Henry Bradford who contributed so much to our photography.

West Bridgewater High School for the memories that will linger throughout our lives.
